Comments provided by: Aderyn ltd, UK - Company-Downstream user

Other Comments

Anti-coagulants should remain accessible for trained pest management professionals as long as no viable alternative is available to manage pests endangering the health of citizens, animals and the environment in which they live.

Through the publication of a European standard (EN16636) and the promotion of certification to this standard (the CEPA Certified® scheme), the European Pest Management industry contributes to identify trained and certified pest management professionals.