

Marcus Navin-Jones

Marcus Navin-Jones is a lawyer – Belgium, Ireland, England & Wales<sup>1</sup>. Over the past two decades his primary focus has been EU chemicals law. Over that time he has spoken at numerous public conferences, and has published various academic and trade-press articles<sup>2</sup>, on the implementation and interpretation of EU chemicals law.

Marcus Navin-Jones began his professional career working at the European Commission (DG MARKT). After a year at PricewaterhouseCoopers, he worked for international law firms in Brussels. In 2014 Marcus became a Partner. In 2020 he was listed in Chambers & Partners particularly for his service in the chemicals law field. In the same year Marcus Navin-Jones moved to the EFTA Surveillance Authority where he is responsible for the Environmental Portfolio. Marcus Navin-Jones is a CEDR Accredited Mediator.

Marcus Navin-Jones attended Stonyhurst College, Bristol University, the University of Law London, and the Centre for Effective Dispute Resolution.

Marcus Navin-Jones is a hispanophile and enjoys being at home with this family, running, swimming, and listening to music.

---

<sup>1</sup> Solicitor and solicitor-advocate

<sup>2</sup> Including “Ein rechtlicher Überblick über die EU-Beschwerdekammern, insbesondere die Beschwerdekammer für die Europäische Agentur für chemische Stoffe (A Legal Review of EU Boards of Appeal in Particular the European Chemicals Agency Board of Appeal) - European Public Law (March 2015, Volume 21, Issue 1) and https://papers.ssrn.com/sol3/papers.cfm?abstract\_id=2421520